Reflections of Love

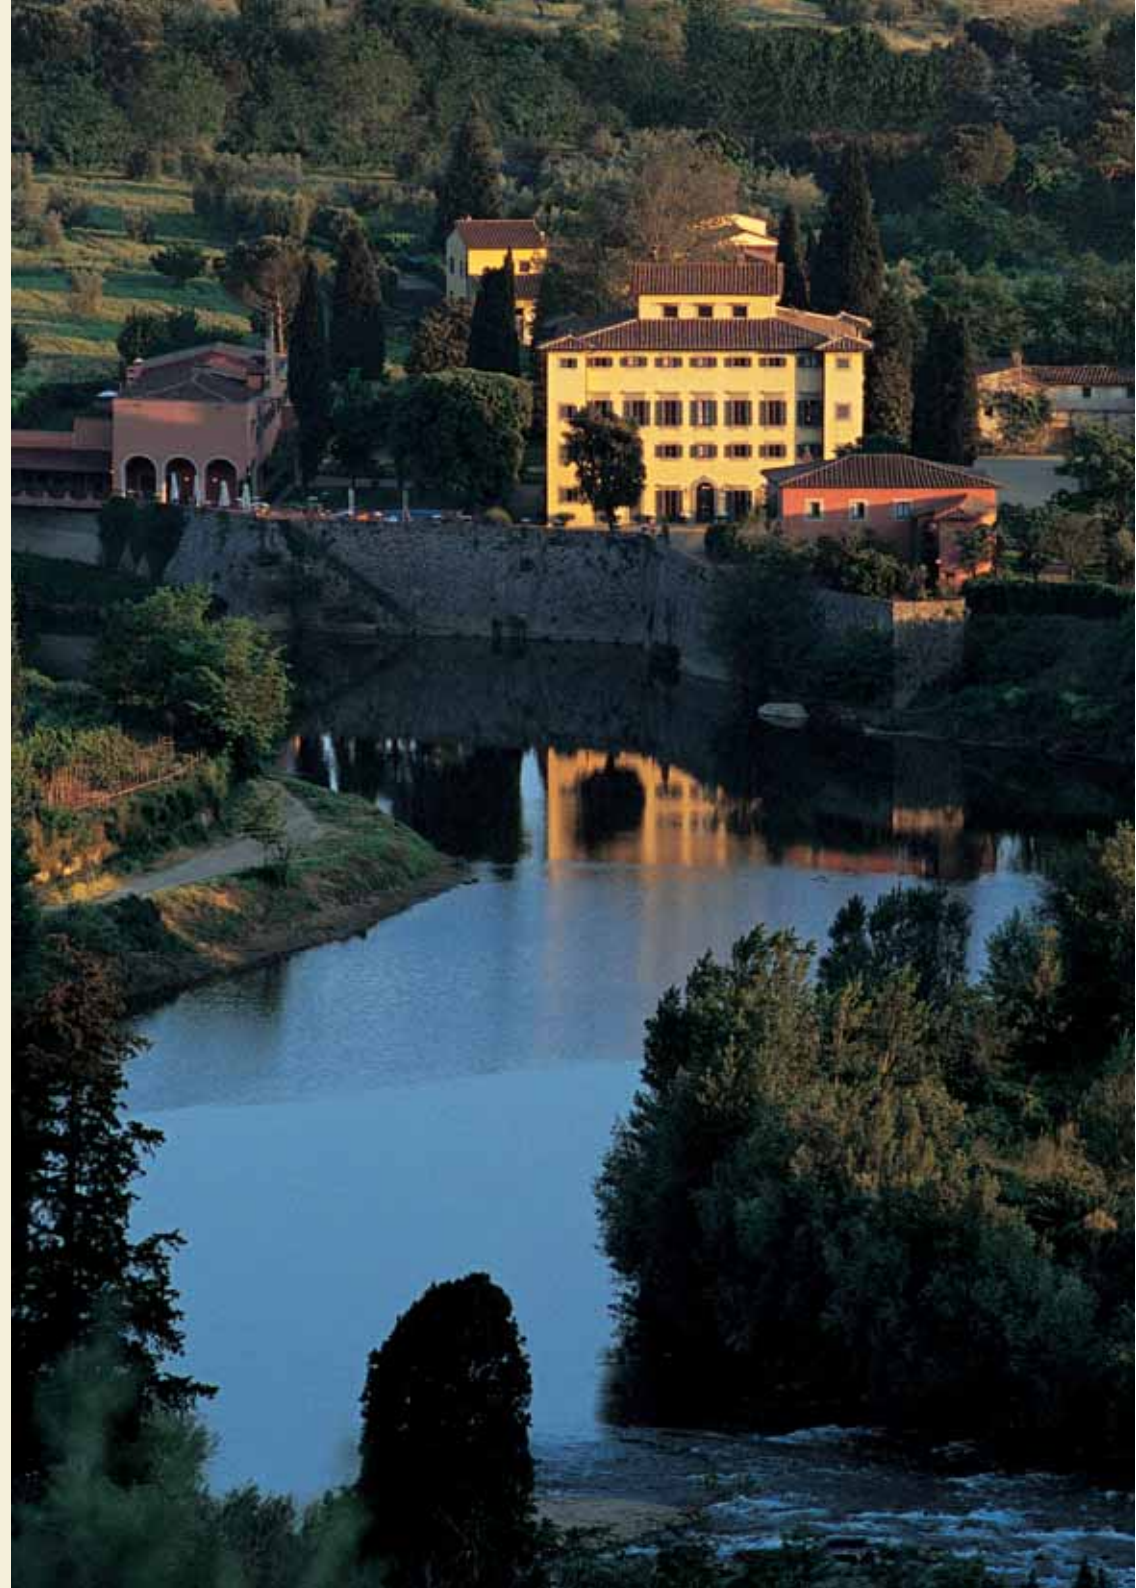

A 16th-century Medici villa, a stone's throw from Florence: Tuscany at its most romantic, the charm of a luxurious country residence. Frescoes and stone, wood and terracotta...

Coffered ceilings, vaults, columns and magnificent stairways... Only 37 rooms, with period furniture, four poster beds, sumptuous marble bathrooms and captivating views overlooking a lovely meander of the Arno river. A restaurant offering the best of the regional tradition – enhanced by garden vegetables, home-produced olive oil and 300 varieties of fine wines from the cellar. The bar, cosy and intimate, offers open air service and drinks and snacks are served by the swimming pool. There is also a fitness centre and treatment room. The jewel in the crown is the private chapel, where truly enchanting ceremonies are held.

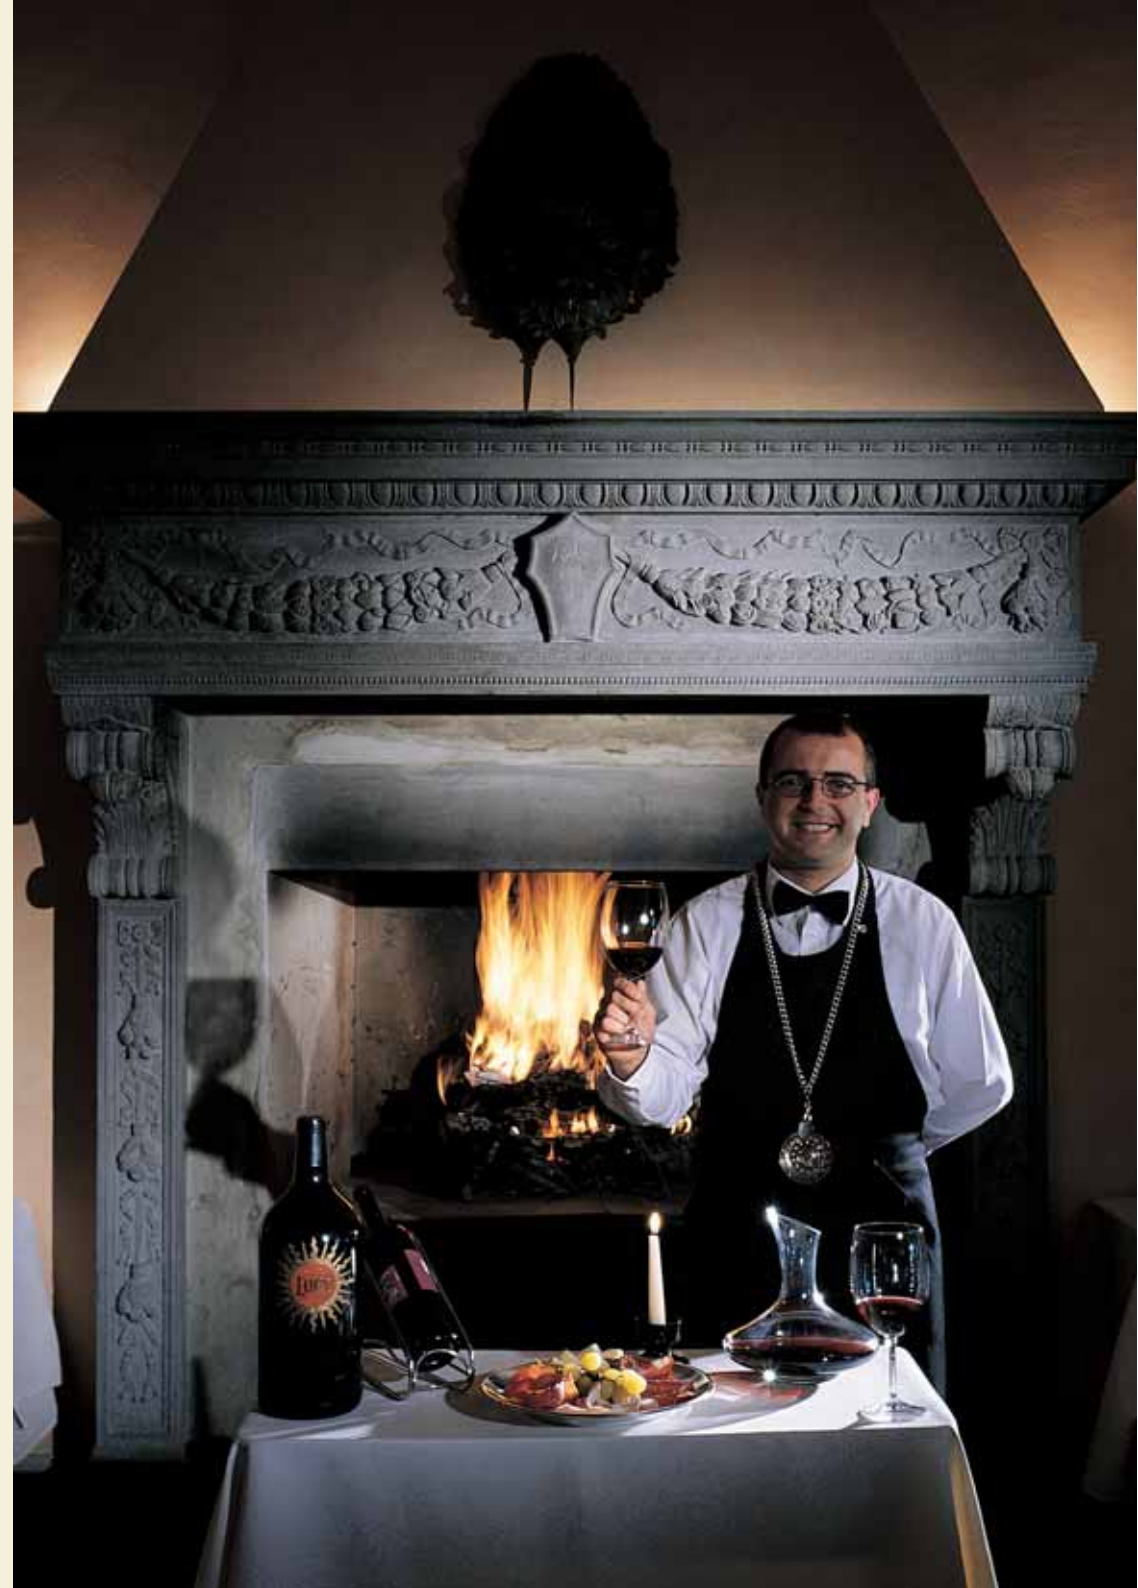

“...there cannot be an end to love.”
Villa La Massa.

An endless form of love.
